

TERRANCE M. HUNSLEY

B.A., M.A. Sociology, M.Ed.
Certificate in Public Administration

President (volunteer) of The Advocate Institute of Human Resources. He is currently on an Interchange Canada Assignment in the Canadian Privy Council Office, heading up a research team looking at population aging and the government's medium term policy agenda.

He recently completed a four-year assignment as the Director General of the International Centre for the Prevention of Crime (ICPC), a UN-affiliated organization with head office in Montreal. He represented the ICPC at the UN Crime Commission, and also served as a member of the Coordinating Committee of the UNHABITAT Safer Cities Program

He is a management and public policy consultant with extensive experience in Canadian and international health and social policy and programs. He is a Fellow of the School of Policy Studies at Queen's University, and was for seven years Program Director of the Queen's International Institute on Social Policy.

For three years he served as the Executive Director of the Biotechnology Human Resources Council (BHRC), and was also appointed a member of the Council of Science and Technology Advisors, (CSTA) to the federal cabinet. He is a former Executive Director of the Canadian Council on Social Development and a former senior public servant at provincial and federal levels. He has taught social policy courses at Queen's University, Management of Non-Profit Organizations, at University of Ottawa, and Social Policy in Market Economy Countries at the Institute for Public Administration and Local Government (IPALG), Ukraine.

He has been published in professional journals in Canada, as well as internationally. His books include Lone Parent Incomes & Social Policy Outcomes: Canada in International Perspective; (Queen's University), Social Policy in the Global Economy (Queen's), and Social Policy And Social Administration In Market Economy Countries (IPALG, Ukraine).

He has also worked as an associate of several major consulting firms including Samson et Associes, Ernst/Young (CAP Gemini), Systemhouse, and Price Waterhouse Coopers Lybrand.

He holds a BA in Psychology, M.A. Sociology, M.Ed (Education), as well as a Diploma in Public Administration. He has served on boards of several non-government organizations, and has done volunteer consulting in the Philippines, Mexico and Nicaragua.